

Asian Performing Arts Camp FAQ for Application

What is the definition of "Asia"?

Asia is very broad in geographic scope and includes many countries and regions. The definition of Asia may vary depending on cultural and geopolitical perspectives. In Tokyo Festival Farm, the definition of Asia is left up to the applicant, as long as they are based in Asia.

Can I apply even if I am not from Asia?

We accept applicants of any origin or nationality, as long as they are currently based in Asia.

How many hours per day are online activities?

We plan to spend about 3 to 4 hours, but this may change depending on the nature of the activity.

What are the time zones for online activities?

The time will be adjusted based on the time difference of the participants and will be provided by the end of July. For reference; in 2022, the online activities were held from 2pm – 5pm JST.

I cannot participate in all the activities, can I still apply?

As a general rule, you may participate in the program only if you are able to attend the entirety of the program. Please note that if the number of absences exceeds a certain number after the program starts, you may not be allowed to complete the program. If there are activities that you cannot participate in due to unavoidable circumstances, please contact Farm-Lab office in advance.

Can I apply even if I am over 35 years old?

In principle, applicants must be aged 35 or younger as of Friday, July 21, 2023, when the activity began (as a general rule).

I am not good at English. Will interpreter support be provided?

All program activities and communication among participants will be conducted in English. However, the Communication Design Team and the program coordinators will provide support so that participants can participate in the program regardless of their language ability.

Do I need to present my vaccination certificate or pre-departure medical examination before entering Japan?

No, you do not need to present a vaccine certificate or a certificate of pre-departure examination when entering Japan. (As of May 25, 2023)

Do you provide transportation between the airport and the accommodation after arrival in Japan?

We will arrange round-trip transportation between the international airport in Tokyo and the accommodation for participants from overseas.

Is it possible to stay an extra night before or after the program?

If you wish to extend your stay, please contact us in advance.

Is it possible to provide meals that meet Halal and other religious dietary restrictions?

We will confirm any allergies or religious dietary restrictions on the questionnaire in advance. If a meal is provided in the program, we will serve a corresponding meal.
